Q.1 / A. Read this text carefully then answer (5) of the following questions.

There are a few simple rules about how to make life easier both before and after the journey. First of all, you must always check the time of the flight. This is definitely essential because sometimes if you are not careful, you may miss the flight. Secondly, you should remember that you have at least a little of the local currency. This can be absolutely essential if you are flying to a place few tourists normally visit. A few years ago, I was sent to a small town in Britain. I arrived there at midnight and the bank at the airport was closed. The only way to get to the hotel was by a taxi and, since I had no British pounds, I offered to pay in American dollars instead. " Listen, I only take real money!" The driver said angrily. Luckily, I was able to borrow a few pounds from a few pounds from a clerk at the hotel, but it was very embarrassing. The third and the last rule is to find out about the weather of the country you visit. It may be very different from the weather at home. I feel sorry for some of my friends who travel in heavy suites and raincoats in March and April when it still fine in places like London, Berlin or New York.
