Mr. Brown used to travel by train and always liked more comfort. So, when he got into a train, he used to put his suitcase on the seat beside him and pretend it belonged to another passenger who had gone to buy something. One day he did this when the train was very crowded. Other passengers came and sat on the other seats, except the one that his suitcase was lying on. Then, an old man arrived, looked at Mr. Brown's suitcase and said " Is this somebody's seat? " " yes ", answered Mr. Brown. " A friend of mine is travelling with me, and he has gone to buy a newspaper. He will return soon." Mr. Brown opened the window and looked out to make the old man think that he was anxious about his friend. " All right ", said the old man. " I will sit here until your friend comes back, and then I'll stand somewhere. " Mr. Brown could say nothing and all the other passengers were watching and listening. Several minutes passed, the whistle blew, and the train began to move. Mr. Brown's friend didn't come back. The old man jumped and said, "I'm sorry, your friend seems to have missed the train.
