Q1. A/ Read this text carefully then answer (5) of the questions that follow.

(10 M.)

Old Sally Gibbs was a very strange woman. The fine house in which she had lived overlooked a lovely valley. But she hardly ever went out. Though a servant looked after her, her only real companions were two cats. For years she had refused to see any of her relations as she felt that all they were interested in was her money. In this she was right. After her death, the few relations she had gathered at the house to hear Sally's lawyer read her will. They were all sure that Sally had left a great fortune and they each demanded a share. This led to violent arguments. In particular, they quarrelled about the house. Sally's nephew felt that it should go to him as he was one of the few people who used to visit his old aunt before she cut herself off from her relations. Sally's cousin objected to this and there was an angry scene in the living - room while they waited for the lawyer to arrive. When the lawyer entered, the nephew said jokingly that his aunt had probably left hundreds of debts. The lawyer did not even smile at this and asked them all to sit down. He began to read the will in a solemn voice. Sally had indeed been very rich, but she had left the whole of her fortune to her two cats!
