Reading Comprehension: (20 Marks)

Q1. A/ Read this text carefully then answer (5) of the questions that follow. (10 M.)

A lady, who owned a large and beautiful cat, received a present of a canary from a friend. The cage of the canary was hung in her bedroom. When the cat was not there, the cage was opened and the canary was allowed to fly about the room. One day, when the cage was opened, the cat somehow got into the room without being noticed. When the lady came in, she was surprised to find her cat and the bird became best friends; and after this they passed hours playing together. One day, while they were playing, the cat seized the canary in its teeth, jumped upon the bed with it and looked as if it was going to eat the bird. The lady thought that her bird was lost, but while she was looking round with surprise, she saw a strange cat in the room. This explained why her cat seized her canary. It was to protect the bird from the strange cat.
