Note: Answer all the questions.

Reading Comprehension: (20 Marks)

Q 1) A/ Read this text carefully then answer (5) of the questions that follow.

(10 M)

Somewhere near the sea, a man lived with his little son in a small house. One night, after dinner, they decided to go out fishing. When they reached the shore, the father suddenly remembered that he had left the light on in their small house. The father was very careful with money. He said to his son, "Go back quickly and turn off the light. I don't want to waste money on oil." The boy ran home, turned off the light and came back. He smiled and said, "Father, I turned off the light. We didn't waste any oil." But the father looked upset and said, "That's not so good, my foolish boy. You've worn out your shoes, and they cost more than the oil we saved." The boy laughed and said, "Don't worry, Father. I went there and came back barefoot, so I didn't wear out my shoes at all." The father smiled, and they both enjoyed their fishing trip under the stars.
