Note: Answer all the questions.

Reading Comprehension: (20 Marks)

Q 1) A/ Read this text carefully then answer (5) of the questions that follow.

(10 M)

One sunny morning, an old woman was driving her small silver car through the busy streets of the city. She followed the traffic rules carefully. Suddenly, a police officer stopped her. He looked surprised and said " Excuse me, madam. You seem quite old to be driving alone. Are you sure you're able to drive safely at your age?" The woman smiled politely and replied, " Officer. I have been driving for over forty years. I've never had an accident. My eyesight is still very good. " The officer seemed unsure and asked. " Can you prove that your eyesight is still good? " Without hesitation, the woman opened her handbag and took out a small sewing needle and a piece of thread. Calmly and quickly, she put the thread through the small hole of the needle. She looked at the officer and said, " If I can do this, then I can see the road very well! " The officer was surprised and laughed " That's amazing! " he said. " Your eyesight is better than mine! " He smiled respectfully and said " That's very admirable, madam. Have a safe drive." The woman thanked him, smiled and drove away confidently. She felt proud that she could prove herself and she hoped people would learn that age does not always mean weakness or inability.
